Reilly Program at the BOLD Center at Douglass

- As part of the Reilly Program, over 200 students engage in a series of specialized workshops and participate a one or two week immersive job shadowing experience, the externship.
- Student externs work on projects, learn about the status of women in the workplace, and get an inside glimpse into the day-to-day work life in a particular career.
- Some companies we work with:
 - AT&T
 - Bristol Myers Squibb
 - Johnson & Johnson
 - Merck
 - UPS

Leadership & Professional Development Education

Workshops offered such as:

- Personal Branding
- Salary Negotiation
- Dress for Success
- Douglass Leadership Retreat
- Networking Through Golf

Other services:

- Internship search assistance
- Mock interviews
- Networking opportunities with professionals
- Resume and cover letter reviews
- Student Organizations/ Leadership Opportunities

Mentoring for Students

- One-on-one mentoring with Douglass Staff Mentors
- An opportunity to be matched with a Professional Mentor
- Bunting Program for Adult Women Students

Legal Careers Exploration

- Students interested in a career in law, public policy, or criminal justice have the opportunity to attend live court, talk to professionals in a variety of legal fields, and hear from current law students on what it takes to succeed in law school.
- Participants also take an LSAT test prep workshop and learn how to prepare the best application possible from law school admissions professionals.

Public Leadership Education Network (PLEN)

- Douglass' PLEN chapter provides a wide array of programs to students interested in public policy.
- In D.C., attend workshops designed to develop our nation's future leaders.
- At the PLEN Spring Forum, learn from experienced professionals who will share their wisdom and stories about public life.
- Round out your experience by applying for a paid-internship in the state capital, Trenton, NJ.
