

What are the benefits?

Click for video: LLC
VIDEO

- French Language and Culture Living-Learning Community (LLC): Students in this vibrant, fun, and engaging residential environment are exposed to French language and culture through events and activities that take place both in and outside of the residence hall. The LLC will provide you with an opportunity to connect to a community of faculty, staff, and fellow students and to receive individualized attention to build foundations for success in your first year and beyond.
- Learn more about eligibility and application guidelines for 14+ LLCs here: <http://ruoncampus.rutgers.edu/rulc/>

Top 10 reasons why students join Learning Communities:

- “It connected me with other students who have an interest in the same field of study.”
- “I made new friends easily with students who shared similar interests.”
- “Since we shared classes together, it helped us form study groups.”
- “It was good to have familiar faces in my large classes.”
- “It helped me feel at home in my new home.”
- “It made my transition from high school to college much easier.”
- “It helped me explore the major I am interested in.”
- “The peer mentors and peer instructors helped to answer informal questions about Rutgers.”
- “It helped make Rutgers a smaller place.”
- “I was able to have great relationships with faculty.”