

*Considering a career in law, social justice, international relations, or journalism?
Check out the new History Minor/Certificate Coming Fall 2020*

Law and History

history.rutgers.edu/law-and-history

Law and History

Requirements: 6 courses for the minor or 5 courses for the certificate (for History majors)

Courses include:

506:216 Law and History (*required, first offered Fall 2020)

512:216 Famous Trials

512:368 History of Civil Rights, 1900-1980

512:402 American Constitutional History to 1865

512:404 American Constitutional History from 1865

508:110 Political Islam, Present and Past

506:260 Wars, Wayfarers and the Wall

506:220 Piracy: A Global History

512:322 Drugs: A Social History

510:394 Human Rights

Plus electives in Political Science, Criminal Justice, Africana Studies, Anthropology, Economics, Latino and Caribbean Studies, Middle East Studies, Philosophy, Sociology, and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.

RUTGERS

School of Arts and Sciences

The minor or certificate is a great option for students pursuing a BA/JD degree through the Rutgers 3+3 program!

For more information visit history.rutgers.edu/law-and-history or contact the faculty advisers, julia.stephens@rutgers.edu and judith.surkis@rutgers.edu